WE ARE SO HAPPY TO BE BACK!

Welcome back to our first live Crystal Palace Festival since 2019.

We can safely say a lot has happened since then and we are so excited and delighted to be back with you, our lovely community, with a festival that focuses on our high street area. It's been a difficult time for all these last few years and it's still so important to support each other and our fabulous local traders. So we are back to our grassroots this year with festival hubs popping up across the Triangle and the Crystal Palace Park gardens, as well as lots of great activities, markets, and performances in our local shops, community centres, and pubs. We hope you have a great time reconnecting with friends, local businesses, and your community. Welcome back – we've missed you!
